

For Immediate Release

All Eyes will be on NyloDeck at the 2011 Deck Expo!

Decking made with a natural-looking texture, color-thru, 100% Wood and PVC free, using recycled Carpet Fibers

Covington GA, (September 2011) - Nyloboard is gearing up for what is expected to be the most talked about trade show this fall! Top deck professionals from all over will be at The DeckExpo in Chicago, IL, October 13-October 15. Nyloboard will welcome tradeshow visitors to experience the NyloDeck difference within its 400 sq. ft. booth. Visitors can expect to see the deck board up close and see where this phenomenal board starts from, using recycled carpet fibers.

“Exhibiting at the 2011 DeckExpo is an exciting time for us. We are glad to be on the cutting edge of making a new generation deck product that uses recycled carpet fibers while offering a superior alternative to Wood Plastic Composites (WPCs) and PVCs. “, said Kevin Guthard, VP Sales and Marketing of Nyloboard, LLC. “We are committed to supporting the deck industry, not only with our superior decking product, but to also keep in line with our mission to be the market champion in customer value and satisfaction.” , added Guthard.

There will be lots of energy in booth # 2618 at the 2011 Deck Expo as many learn about a decking material that proudly boasts, No Wood. No PVC. No Worries!

About Nyloboard:

Nyloboard is a manufacturer of composite products that contain no wood, PVC, or VOCs. Using an exclusive, patented manufacturing technology that utilizes 100 percent recycled, post-consumer carpet fibers and VOC-free bonding resin. One of Nyloboard ‘s key goals is to help stop the waste stream of carpet fiber that currently contributes billions of pounds of non-reclaimable waste to landfills each year and use it to create superior products. Nyloboard also takes pride in manufacturing green building products that are not only sustainable, but also impervious to moisture, rot, termites, mold and mildew. Nyloboard’s manufacturing facility is located in Covington, Georgia, just outside of Atlanta.
